BIRD WATCHING TOURS: NORTH NORFOLK

The Bird ID
company

Birdwatching Tour Special Break

Based at Titchwell Manor, you will be guided throughout your break to some of the best bird watching locations in North Norfolk by Stuart White, the owner and tour leader of The Bird ID company – www.birdtour.co.uk.

At the first introductory meeting your exact itinerary will be decided. The combination of Stuart's up-to-date knowledge of what's in the area and your target species will create a memorable trip unique to you.

Whether you are new to bird watching or a more experienced observer, you are sure to be delighted by the sheer diversity of the birdlife that Norfolk has to offer. As you will see from the Typical Bird Watching Tour Itinerary, both Stuart and the staff of Titchwell Manor will ensure that your break in North Norfolk will be a very special and memorable one.

About Titchwell Manor

Titchwell Manor hotel has stunning, uninterrupted views across the wild North Norfolk marshes towards the sea. It benefits from a superb location, with the RSPB reserve nearby and miles of golden, sandy beaches, which are an all year round attraction.

With its delightful fusion of modernity and traditional values with contemporary decor and excellent cuisine, Titchwell Manor has gained a reputation for being a stylish, boutique hotel with a personal touch. Just the place to relax after a invigorating day of birdwatching!
